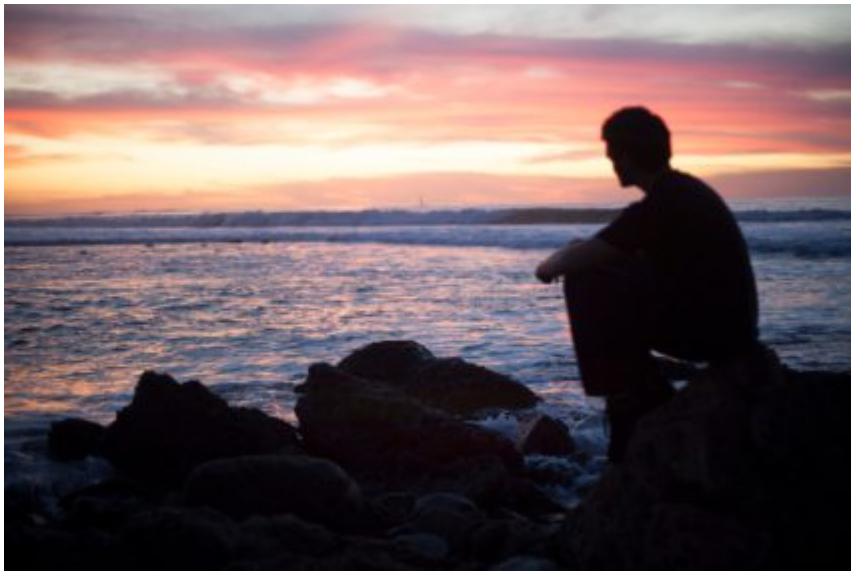
A Few Thoughts For You



By Steven J. Hogan

~ A Special Post ~

I am taking a break from writing a prophecy post this week and next week, but I did want to share a few thoughts:

1. You can now download the English posts. I would suggest that you put them in a file so you can easily retrieve them, and print them out.

2. If you have only been recently reading the blog post, I would recommend going to the Archives, and read them from the very beginning. There are many foundational truths and a lot of good information you need to understand about the end-times, the second coming of Christ, and the ages to come.

3. I have been putting up weekly Facebook ads, with the result that thousands of people from all over the world have been viewing the blog posts, for which I am very thankful. These people, from over 50 different countries, are primarily from Africa and Latin America. Pray that God would use these posts in the lives of all these viewers, particularly, that they would be learning about the coming of Christ and the hope He has given us.

4. I often talk about Christ coming back soon. I say that because the Jewish people are back in their land, and therefore we live in the end-times, in the last years leading up to Christ's return. But many things still need to take place before His return. Consequently, I believe that Christ's coming and the rapture of the church are still many years away; but in view of all of human history, we can say that it is soon, in fact, very soon. And whether it occurs 10, 20 or 50 years from now, or even longer, no one but God knows.

5. This past Sunday, our church was blessed to have a guest speaker, Mike Ufferman, from Zion's Hope. He gave a very encouraging message about what it was like in the Days of Noah, and how that relates to how we should view the coming of Christ.

May God continue to bless you in these last days leading up to the return of Christ and the rapture of the church, and be using you for His eternal purposes and glory. "He will keep you strong to the end so that you will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God, who has called you into fellowship with His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, is faithful." 1 Corinthians 1:8-9
