The Truth About Rewards, The Heavenly Prize

By Steven J. Hogan

~ A Saturday Morning Post #222 ~

My plan was to write a post and list out a number of verses about rewards and the incredibly glorious future God has in store for us. But I discovered there are many more verses than I thought, close to 150 of them. And so, I wrote an article – "Your Lord, Your Hope, Your Reward." I encourage you to take the time to read and think about these eternal truths for, without question, they will help to spiritually strengthen your life. I have no doubt that they will give you a heartfelt hope about your future which will increase your love for God in the present, resulting in a more blessed, fruitful, and successful Christian life.

Many of you are watching the Olympics. Might these earthly games be a motivation to you to win heavenly prizes, eternally satisfying and God-glorifying rewards. “Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win! Everyone who competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. They then do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. Therefore, I run in such a way, as not without aim; I box in such a way, as not beating the air; but I discipline my body and make it my slave, so that, after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified” (1 Cor. 9:24-27). Take the time to go through “Your Lord, Your Hope, Your Reward.”
